

VOL. 4 — RAHU / URANUS PERSONALITIES

(Born on 4, 13, 22, 31)

Global Numerology — Behavioral & Psychological Blueprint of Individuals Born on 4, 13, 22, and 31.

This volume studies unconventional thinking, rebellion against rigid systems, emotional intensity, sudden behavioural shifts, analytical depth, and independent life patterns of individuals born on 4, 13, 22, and 31. Through the SAPANDA SPAN™ framework inspired by classical Cheiro decans, the book explains why some Number 4 individuals become reformers, innovators, silent observers, unconventional leaders, or emotionally misunderstood personalities depending upon zodiac signs and SPAN layers.

The book carefully explores the psychological differences between 4, 13, 22, and 31 rather than treating them as one identical vibration. It studies how Rahu/Uranian energy behaves under different zodiac environments and behavioural filters, helping readers understand emotional reactions, mental rigidity, rebellion, work style, relationship tendencies, discipline patterns, and pressure responses with far greater depth and realism.

Unlike generic numerology books, this work focuses on behavioural observation, practical psychology, emotional refinement, and self-awareness rather than fear-based prediction. The content is designed for serious readers who want to understand why Number 4 personalities often feel different from society, think differently, behave differently, and experience life through unusual patterns and extremes.
